Resident/Public Input

- none

Old Business

- Bill Bogantz stated that Concord Rd. ditch culvert plugged causing flooding along the road. Bill Siegel and Jeff Irvin have been communicating with the resident. The resident stated a former trustee installed the culvert and claims it is the township's responsibility to clear. Jeff Irvin was involved with the installation of the culvert and heard the former trustee explain that once the culvert is installed it is the homeowner's responsibility to keep the culvert clear of debris. Bill Siegel and Jeff Irvin will follow up with the situation.
- Jeff Irvin, Road Maintenance Supervisor, finished mowing and spraying.
- All the roads are finished.

New Business

- Bill Bogantz received an estimate to paint the township building from Zigo Construction for $2850.00. Bill Siegel requested more estimates before the final decision. The trustees all agreed.
- The International Truck taken to Zanesville for repair.
- R.L. Parsons repaired the mowing tractor.
- Bill Siegel took pictures of the flooding on Nichols Lane. He is going to get in contact with the Licking County Soil and Water Department.
- The fiscal officer requested the decision from the trustees on the renewal or non-renewal of the bank CD. The auditor suggested the trustees move the money into the township checking account. Bill Bogantz made a motion not to renew the Park National Bank Certificate. Dave Cole seconded the motion. Motion passed with all yes votes.

Correspondence/Warrants/Receipts

- The July correspondences read.
- Receipts for the month of July read. Receipts totaled $16,795.65
