Resident/Public Input

- Anthony Bonnell was present to inquire about bidding for the 2019 mowing contract. Bill Siegel communicated that the bids are taken in January or February. Bill Bogantz took Mr. Bonnell's information and will pass it on to Beth Warner. Beth will contact Mr. Bonnell as to when bids will be accepted.

Old Business

- No old business reported.

New Business

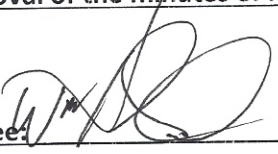

- Bill Siegel mentioned that there was another fatality in our township. Corner of Northridge and Hardscrabble. Bill proposed that we drive each of our township roads and ensure all signs are visible and free of obstructions.
- Bill Siegel reviewed the research he has conducted on the proposal to purchase a new pickup truck. Our current truck is a 2005 with 210,000 miles. Bill has worked with Coughlin Automotive in Pataskala. The new truck would run around $59,000+ and would be equipped with a dump bed, blade/plow, and drop spreader.
Bill Siegel made a motion to proceed with the purchase of the new truck.
Bill Bogantz seconded the motion.
The motion passed with all yes votes.
- Bill Siegel presented the idea to sell the old pickup and the '69 Dump Truck (white).
All agreed. Bill Siegel will work with Beth Warner and Jeff Irvin to advertise. A minimum bid will be set on each vehicle and closed bids received.
